PRESS RELEASE

MSH INTERNATIONAL MAKES A COMMITMENT TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Paris, September 7, 2018 - MSH International, a world leader in the design and management of international health and life & disability insurance solutions for globally-mobile individuals, and part of the SIACI SAINT HONORE Group, becomes an official sponsor of AHRMIO (Association for Human Resources Management in International Organizations) and for the first time will be attending the AHRMIO annual conference from 10th to 12th September in Braga, Portugal.

The AHRMIO Association, formed in 1998, is dedicated to the development of human resources skills in not-for-profit international organizations – both governmental and non-governmental - in the day-to-day administration and management of their workforce.

The 2018 AHRMIO conference will look at the impact of Artificial Intelligence and the latest technological developments in respect of employment, the work environment and the way we will work in the future.

MSH International has invited Olivier BABEAU, Founder and Chairman of the think tank, Institut Sapiens, and a specialist in the impact of technology on humans, to speak on the following topic:

“What will be the future role of people in organizations and in HR in particular?”

MSH International will be represented by Director of Intergovernmental Organizations, Antonio GONZALEZ and Account Managers, Jessica HANSLIP, Franck DONNERSBERG and Adil SALMI.

“Our involvement with AHRMIO and our participation in the annual conference follow on from MSH International's increasingly close association with International Organizations which we are keen to assist as they deal with a range of Employee Benefits issues”, said Laurent Cochet, Director of Business Development at MSH.
